KIMBERLY MORRIS

For 10 years Kimberly has been managing economic development opportunities and helping community organizations and the City of Chicago support small businesses, create jobs, and revitalize under-resourced and disinvested neighborhoods.

At CNI, Kimberly is helping to build client and community relationships and design its development strategy and activities. She is also working to generate support for citywide opportunities and initiatives as well as managing all aspects of CNI's construction projects.

She has a Bachelor's degree in Urban and Regional Planning from the University of Illinois and earned her Master's in Public Administration degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago.
